

Michigan Chapter SWCS Seminar Wednesday, March 6, 2019

Agro-Liquid Conference Facility

3055 W. M-21, St. Johns, MI

9:00 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. (On-site check-in opens at 8:30 a.m.)

A Matter of Balance:

Perceptions, Engagement and Partnerships for On-Farm Conservation

Modern crop and livestock systems are complex, and the management of these systems requires continuous adaptation and change in practices and strategies. Many advances in agricultural technology offer opportunities to protect water quality and build soil health, yet farmers are often unable or unwilling to adopt new practices. More
